Von Laurie Kellogg : A Little Bit of Deja Vu (Return to Redemption, Book 1) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Little Bit of Deja Vu (Return to Redemption, Book 1):

It fascinates me how Laurie Kellogg finds a way to get many happy endings in one book. The only problem that I have was that my Kindle Touch had problems loading the

When her cousin encourages her to make a fresh start with her teenage daughter, unsuspecting Margie takes a reading specialist job in the small town of Redemption, PA. The last person she expects to encounter is Rocket Manion, the ex-NFL quarterback and Dr. Phil wannabe who broke her heart nineteen years ago. Strangling her meddling cousin is now at the top of Margie's to-do list. Divorced teacher and head football coach Jake Manion experiences an eerie sense of déjà vu when his son announces he's gotten his girlfriend pregnant. The feeling simply grows stronger when Jake learns the girl's mother is Maggie, the same woman on whom he's wasted nearly two decades of bitterness. While planning their kids' wedding and helping them grow up too soon, Margie struggles with her renewed attraction to Jake. But no matter how irresistible his kisses are, she isn't stupid enough to let him hurt her again. Or is she?
